

VIDEO DESIGN ASSISTANT - FIRST NATIONS | AQ CAPACITY BUILDING

About Us

Queensland's premier arts festival, Brisbane Festival heralds the promise of play and celebration as it lights up the city each September in a blaze of colour.

We create extraordinary art and take up residence throughout the river city, atop iconic landmarks and deep into the suburbs. We host captivating live performances and installations from home and across the world. Our Festival reflects the diverse communities that give Brisbane its unique voice. We invite audiences to Be Bold with us, to expect art unexpected with open hearts and minds; to be entertained, inspired, and amazed.

Brisbane Festival acknowledges this country's First Nations people and with their leadership and guidance, we celebrate that deep cultural legacy. We create a rich multi-arts program made by and with our local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

Our artists, people and partners are ambitious and agile dreamers who make the impossible possible through passion, hard work, and care.

Position Summary

Brisbane Festival is recruiting for an emerging Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander Video Design Assistant Placement to join the Brisbane Festival production team. The role will work closely with award-winning Designer, David Bergman, on the planning and delivery of The Lovers as part of the 2025 Brisbane Festival.

This position is a paid role as part of the Brisbane Festival capacity building program, supported by the Queensland Government through Arts Queensland, that provides paid opportunities for emerging arts workers to develop their skills alongside leading artists and arts workers.

The role will commence in late July/early August on a part time basis, with hours increasing in late August for delivery of the project – contracted hours to be negotiated with the candidate in due course.
